APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education respectfully submits the following report and recommendations:

Most of our institutions have submitted carefully-prepared and accurate reports, from which we are pleased to state that the value of intellectual culture is being more and more appreciated by the masses of our people, as evidenced by a largely increased patronage on the part of all our institutions. This large increase of patronage has had a healthful reflex influence upon these several institutions, manifested in a substantial increase in the value of buildings and other equipments of a material character. The character and quality of our teaching forces have likewise made material advancement. So that we cordially commend all our schools to Methodist people as being good as the best and good enough for the best.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

This institution stands at the head of our connectional schools and colleges, and is justly the pride of Southern Methodism. Who seeks the broadest Christian culture will find it here. We commend it to Southern youth, and more especially to Southern Methodist youth.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

This institution is the joint property of the two North Carolina Conferences and reflects great credit upon the Methodism in the State. In an emphatic sense it continues to be both progressive and aggressive. In material and intellectual equipment it has no superior among Southern colleges, and is rapidly winning its way into the affections of the Methodist public and the general public as well. During the academic year ending June 8th there were matriculated 403 students—237 in college classes and 166 in the Trinity Park School. In the present academic year, to date, a total of 431 students have been enrolled. At the corresponding date of last year the total was 375—a difference of 56 students—showing an increase of about 15 per cent in the patronage over last year.

During the past summer a Law Department was organized, with a faculty of three teachers, and a fourth teacher contemplated in the near future. The purposes of this department are to give such a thorough training in the fundamental principles of law as is necessary to a right and successful practice of the profession in any of the commonwealths of this country. The courses of study are so arranged that the student will be fitted, after two years' study, to stand his examination before the Supreme Court, on subjects required for license to practice law in North Carolina.

To be admitted to the benefits of this department, the student must have completed, in some reputable college, as much academic work as is included in the sophomore year. These entrance requirements are fully two years in advance of the highest entrance requirements which have hitherto prevailed in any law school in the South, and fully five years in advance of the usual entrance requirements. Our college is truly in a fortunate condition, a condition that enables it to contend for advanced standards in all departments of learning. This fact is the source of just pride among Methodists everywhere. And the grateful appreciation of our people is eminently and continually due to the great benefactors of this institution, through whose generosity and large liberality the church is indebted for so great a center of refined Christian culture.

Among the many advanced positions taken in recent times by our college, we wish to direct attention to the latest, if not the greatest—the establishment of a woman's course, in connection with the college—a course not only equal but identical with that for young men. This college for women will be a complete organization in itself and will cover the same field of academic work now done in Trinity College for young men. The Faculty of Trinity College will be the Faculty of this Woman's College, and will thus secure for our young women an education equal and identical with that given to our young men. With the establishment of this college our Conference and people may enjoy the benefits of the best equipped and best endowed college for women in all the Southern States—a college which in its conditions and expenses adapts itself to the varied and varying needs and requirements of all our young women, from the poorest girl in the humblest home to that in the most opulent. This woman's college is a grand conception, worthy of our great church, and the prospect of its speedy realization should stir the enthusiasm, the gratitude and the generosity of all our people. Trinity College is our college. We are glad that it is. We are proud of it. And praying God's richest blessings upon the memory of its great founder, upon the counsels of its guardians, upon the labors of its Faculty, upon the hopes and efforts of its student body, upon the gifts of its benefactors, upon the good wishes of its friends, we cordially commend this institution to the kindly interest and generous support of our people.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

It will be remembered that this institution made precious by the sweet memories of the past and made illustrious by former achievements was, at the last sitting of this Conference, bending neath a weight of debt and other untoward circumstances, to such an extent as to blanch the cheek of its bravest friend. In the hour of this great distress, its friends—men and women—were flocking to its rescue from all parts of the State. But unfortunately its cup of misfortune was not yet full. At this trying juncture of its history, it was literally made to pass through the fires, let us hope, if not to greater purification, at least, through the redoubled efforts of friends, to a far more beautiful outward form and local habitation. Instead of the old building which was, in many respects, antiquated, and with $56,275 of indebtedness, we now have a new building, well on the way towards completion, which is modern in every respect and equipped with all conveniences necessary for comfort and health. When enlarged and equipped, according to the accepted plans, it will be one of the best college buildings for women to be found in the Southern States. Notwithstanding this calamitous fire which left nothing save the bare walls, and, notwithstanding other apparently insurmountable obstacles, the friends of the institution have so far succeeded in replacing the buildings as to be able to reopen the college on the 12th day of October, with the largest number of students which has matriculated in recent years, there being 102 students present on the first day, and the number of students has now reached 122. A full faculty has been employed, composed largely of former members, and in some departments additions have been made. So that the friends of the college feel that they can appeal to our people with confidence and expect their support, in view of the superior advantages offered. In addition to the above, the new equipment and modern improvements having a net cash value over all liabilities of $101,467.49, will enable the college to be conducted upon a more economical basis, than was possible under the old regime, while the creature comforts and the character of the teaching forces have not only not deteriorated, but, on the contrary, have been largely improved. Through all the years of the past it has been the modest but well-founded claim of the friends of this school, that the product of G. F. College has ever been a sweet, modest, pure, lovable Christian womanhood. Her graduates make good preacher's wives and wholesome homes everywhere. Without reservation we commend G. F. College to all, and especially to the narrowly discriminating who seek the purest environment for their daughters in the character-forming period of life.

Report number two of this college is so full of information relative to the present condition and future hopes of the institution—information that would be useful and interesting to our people—that we recommend its publication in our Conference minutes, and to that end we here and now incorporate it into the body of this report. Said report is as follows:

REPORT NO. 2.

WHEREAS, from the report of the Board of Trustees of Greensboro Female College, it appears that the money collected from the insurance companies for the loss sustained by fire, which destroyed the college building, was consumed in the payment of the bonded indebtedness, and the said Trustees were entirely dependent upon voluntary contributions for funds to rebuild and equip said college; and

WHEREAS, a sufficient amount of such subscriptions not having been made and paid, the said Trustees were compelled to borrow from the Greensboro Loan and Trust Company, the sum of sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000.00), in order to complete a part of the building in time for the opening of the fall session of 1904, and it may become necessary to borrow an additional amount to complete and equip the college for immediate use and occupancy:

Therefore, be it Resolved:

First. That the action of the Board of Trustees in borrowing money from the Greensboro Loan and Trust Company, and the passage of certain resolutions, and the execution of certain obligations for the payment of the said sum, or sums, so borrowed, together with interest thereon, be and the same is hereby approved, ratified and confirmed, and the amount heretofore borrowed by the Trustees for the purpose of rebuilding, and any amount that may be necessary for them to borrow hereafter, for the purpose of completing and equipping the said building, shall constitute, be and become a lien and charge on the property of the Greensboro Female

College, and the said Trustees are hereby fully authorized and empowered to execute and deliver any deed, or deeds, whereby said property may be conveyed as a security for such sum, or sums, heretofore borrowed, or which may hereafter be borrowed, or any part thereof, so as to secure in good faith any amount already borrowed, or which they may hereafter borrow, for the purpose of erecting and completing and equipping the said building: Provided, that they shall not at any one time incur an indebtedness of more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00).

Second. That the plan of the Trustees, to rebuild, equip and endow the college entirely by voluntary contributions, without asking the two Annual Conferences in North Carolina, to assume any financial obligation therefor, is hereby heartily endorsed, and we commend the said institution to the people of North Carolina, and hereby appeal especially to the Methodists of the State to rally to its support, in order to accomplish the purpose of the Trustees, to make Greensboro Female College one of the very first colleges in the South, for the education and consecration of women.

Third. That the said Trustees are hereby fully authorized and empowered to sell or lease, or improve for sale or for rent, the land lying east of the railroad and along McGhee street to the ravine between said street and the college, whenever they may deem it necessary for the best interests of the said institution.

RUTHERFORD COLLEGE.

The report of President Reynolds indicates steady and substantial growth, as shown by increased attendance and large receipts from tuition fees. The total number of students last year was 278, including 8 young preachers. Substantial improvements continue to be made upon the property, and the indebtedness is gradually but constantly decreasing. It is now the policy of this institution to liquidate the entire indebtedness before making further improvements upon the account. We believe that President Reynolds and his co-laborers are doing a good and a much-needed work. We tender him our best wishes and commend him to our people.

WEAVERVILLE COLLEGE.

From an informal report made by Dr. J. A. Reagan, member of Board of Trustees and its staunchest friend, we learn that this valuable property consisting of two large brick buildings, containing ample society and library halls, and a commodious chapel, is free from debt —$4,400 having been paid for its liquidation during the Conference year now closing. Occupying a campus of 16 acres of native oak, situated upon a lovely and healthful plateau surrounded by mountains, this institution is an ideal place for the pursuit of knowledge. Dr. Reagan informs us that within the memory of man, no case of tuberculosis has ever developed on this plateau. With this record, and occupying, as it does a strategic point in our system of schools, we are not surprised to learn that its industrious young president and capable assistants are making a school that is worthy of and securing a good patronage, having an enrollment, at present, of 165 students.

BREVARD INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

This school occupies a unique as well as a strategic place in the system of our schools. It is largely industrial in character as well as charitable in its purpose. Indigent girls may here obtain a fair education at small cost. President Bishop reports gratifying progress on all lines. It is believed that the buildings will be completed and all debts paid off at an early day, when the Woman's Missionary Board will assume charge of the institution. The school deserves well of our people and we heartily commend it to their fostering care and support.

DAVENPORT COLLEGE FOR WOMEN.

From a verbal report made by the President, Dr. Weaver, this school is receiving marked encouragement and satisfactory patronage. Considerable improvements are being made upon the buildings, and with the up-to-date methods prevailing, and under exceptional leadership, this school is deservedly taking a prominent place among the schools of our Conference and is worthy of our commendation.

TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL.

President Henry reports this school as enjoying a fair degree of prosperity. The buildings are exceptionally large and well suited to the needs of secondary education, being those occupied by Trinity College, prior to its removal to Durham. Beautiful and healthful of location, rich in the memories of a distinguished past, this school under its present faithful management is worthy of abundant success.

TRINITY PARK SCHOOL.

It is with feelings of sadness and regret that we report the untimely death of the Rev. J. F. Bivins, headmaster. In an official announcement of the President of the Board of Trustees, it was stated that: "From the beginning of Trinity Park School to the time of his death, he had been its enthusiastic, wise and untiring headmaster. He was pure in character, sound in faith, upright in conduct, brave in spirit, generous in disposition, and filled his place as few men could have filled it."

The splendid plans and high ideals of Prof. Bivins have been so well executed by his successor that the patronage has increased to such an extent that an enlargement of the plant is necessary. Plans are now being made to double the capacity of the building and to erect a new dormitory that shall contain all modern conveniences. This school is one of the best fitting schools in the country and its students enjoy without restrictions all the benefits of the college societies, libraries, associations, etc., of the college proper. Students prepared here go right into the regular college classes without examination.

CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH SOUTH.

Dr. Cuninggim, Director of this school, reports that the past year has been a most successful one. At present there are on the roll of this school 453 students, representing 36 annual conferences. During the past year 19 members of our Conference have been enrolled, and of these 9 have completed the course and are entitled to the certificate of the school. We suggest a continuance of our action of last year touching this school—accepting certificates in lieu of Conference examinations, etc.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We respectfully recommend:

1. That the following be appointed members of the Board of Trustees for BREVARD INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL, to-wit: D. Atkins, E. L. Bain, F. Siler, C. P. Moore, J. W. Nichols, J. W. McMinn, W. H. Allison, G. L. Hackney and A. T. Bell.

2. That the following changes be made in the Board of Trustees for Greensboro Female College: That the number be increased from nine to twelve, four of whom shall represent the Alumnae Association, four the Western N. C. Conference, and four the North Carolina Conference. For the Western North Carolina Conference we recommend that J. B. Cornelius, for three years, be substituted for I. I. Davis; C. A. Bray, for six years, as fourth representative. For the North Carolina Conference we recommend the appointment of C. E. Cramer, for one year, instead of Joseph G. Brown, resigned; F. A. Poe, for four years, instead of Q. K. Nimocks, resigned; and J. L. Borden, for six years, fourth representative, and J. R. Page as fourth representative of the Alumnae Association.

3. That the following be appointed Trustees of Rutherford College: W. R. Ware, H. K. Boyer, Dr. W. L. Abernethy, and E. D. Dixon, to succeed themselves; J. A. Cornell, in place of P. H. Hanes; W. C. Thompson, in place of G. A. Gray, and J. H. West, in the place of J. R. Scroggs.

4. That Mr. H. B. Adams, of Monroe, N. C., be appointed as successor on the Board of Trustees to Rev. W. C. Wilson, deceased; that P. T. Durham be appointed a professor in Trinity College, and that S. A. Stewart be appointed a student in Yale Divinity School.

5. That Dr. C. C. Weaver be appointed President of Davenport College for Women, and that J. R. Ervin be made a Trustee of the institution.

6. We deprecate the fact that a number of charges reported nothing last year for the cause of education, though in some instances they reported collections in full, and more than full, for some other causes. We respectfully urge our presiding elders and pastors to emphasize the importance of education before our people, that a more loyal connectional spirit in behalf of education may be developed and that more cheerful and liberal gifts may be realized for this vital cause.

7. That an educational assessment of $7,500 be made, and the same be divided as follows: To the General Board, $300; to Trinity High School, $250; to Brevard Industrial School, $712.50; to Rutherford College, $912.50; to Weaverville College, $912.50; to Trinity College, $912.50; to Davenport College, for Women, $1,500; to Greensboro Female College, $2,000. We recommend that all the above-named amounts be prorated on the ratio of the amount collected. We further recommend that these several amounts be not expended in the payment of current expenses, but be applied to the liquidation of outstanding claims incurred in permanent improvements or to the improvement of grounds and buildings, as the Board of Trustees of these several institutions, in their wisdom, may elect.

8. That the third Sunday in June be observed as Educational Day. We desire to repeat and to give emphasis to our recommendation of last year, and urge our preachers to give this day and the cause for which it stands deserving consideration as provided for in the Discipline, section 412.

9. That all our people be urged, through the preachers, to cooperate with the Sunday Schools in the observance of Children's Day.

10. That the following report of the Treasurer of this Board be accepted:

Your Board makes the following recommendations:

1. That pastors make an effort to put the missionary periodical, "Go Forward," into every home.
2. That retiring pastors furnish their successors with a list of all contributions to missions in 1904.
3. That since early collections usually mean full collections an effort be made early to secure these collections.
4. That every charge send a full representation to the South Atlantic Missionary Conference to be held in Asheville, May 17-21, 1905. The Conference is entitled to send the following delegates: All itinerant and local preachers, all members of Conference Boards, three delegates from each charge elected by the quarterly Conference (let these be elected on the first round), four delegates from each church school, the superintendent, and one elected from each Sunday School; the president, and one elected from each Epworth League; the president, and one elected from each Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and from each Home Missionary Society, and the officers of each Conference organization of the W. F. M. and W. H. M. Society.
5. That the mid-year meeting be held in connection with the South Atlantic Missionary Conference.
6. That W. H. Willis be appointed Conference Secretary.

We have other applications before us which have been granted, and some of the brethren think strange that the money is not forthcoming; but we must wait for this amount to be collected, which is rather a slow process while our membership is so small.

So let me again beg you not to pass over this matter lightly, but do what you can to help us organize the women of our Conference for study and work and a higher plane of Christian living.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Sunday School Board submits the following report:

The statistics show that we now have 741 Sunday Schools, 4,963 officers and teachers and 58,464 scholars. This is a gain of 4 schools; 2 officers and teachers, and 2,425 scholars. We are gratified at the large gain this year in the number of Sunday School scholars.

We call the attention of pastors, to the fact that where schools are organized in destitute places, money can be secured from the Secretary of this Board for the purchase of literature.

We make the following recommendations:

- 1st. That pastors organize wherever possible, Bible Teachers' Study Circles.
- 2nd. The importance of the observance of Children's Day by all of our schools.
- 3rd. The observance of Decision Day, the establishment of the Home Department, and of the Baby Roll.
- 4th. That special emphasis be given to the Sunday School at the District Conference, when no separate Sunday School Conference is held in the District.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The Epworth League Board has to report a decrease again this year; a decrease of three Senior Leagues; a decrease of six Junior Leagues; a decrease of three hundred and forty-seven members.

We are pained to make this report because we believe that the Epworth League furnishes the young people of our church with an open door for activity, service and Christian culture which they cannot afford to fail to enter. We can do little more for the cause of the League than make an earnest appeal to the pastors to give their prayerful attention to the claims of the League. As pastors we owe much to the young people of the church. Can we afford to let the League die, or fail to organize our young people into an Epworth League where it does not exist?

Again we recommend the "Epworth League Culture Courses," gotten out by the Publishing House, and the Epworth Era. We recommend the holding of District Epworth League Conferences in every district independent of the regular district Conference. We are pleased to learn that a very successful conference was held in the Asheville district last year. We again recommend the appointment of an Epworth League Secretary for each district, who shall have general oversight of the interests of the League in his own district, keeping in touch with them and helping to organize new ones wherever possible. We offer the following names as League Secretaries:

Asheville District—A. T. Bell, Asheville, N. C.
 Charlotte District—C. M. Pickens, Pineville, N. C.
 Franklin District—T. C. Jordan, Sylva, N. C.
 Greensboro District—C. H. Ireland, Greensboro, N. C.
 Morganton District—R. D. Sherrill, Morganton, N. C.
 Mt. Airy District—H. C. Sprinkle, Elkin, N. C.
 Salisbury District—G. T. Rowe, Concord, N. C.
 Shelby District—J. W. Clegg, Denver, N. C.
 Statesville District—W. F. Womble, Newton, N. C.
 Waynesville District—W. T. Buttrick, Emma, N. C.
 Winston District—J. P. Rodgers, Mocksville, N. C.

BIBLE COURSE.

Your Board rejoices at the splendid advance in collections for this cause in our Conference this year. We have realized the sum of $906.61. We hoped for a contribution of at least one thousand dollars. This would have been done, had not thirty charges failed to take collections for this cause.

Year by year God is more directly revealing to us His will as to how His Word shall be dispensed to our lost brethren. This year church collections have increased seventeen thousand dollars, while legacies have decreased thirty-four thousand dollars, leaving a deficit of $17,000.

These figures suggest strongly, that the brother who refuses to give his people the privilege of aiding in this world-wide call of God, is simply recreant to the great imperative command laid upon him.

We therefore most earnestly recommend, that the first Sabbath in next March be again observed as Bible Day, and that the cause be presented, and a special collection taken in each charge of this Conference on that day, and the Sabbaths following until every congregation shall have been privileged to contribute.

G. G. HARLEY, Chairman.

J. H. BRENDALL, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

The Watts law passed by our last Legislature has driven the saloons and distilleries into incorporated towns and as the smaller towns when under the control of the liquor men have little or no police protection, and as the liquor traffic is exceedingly demoralizing and greatly hinders the work of the church in such towns, therefore recommended that this Conference petition the next Legislature to amend the Watts law so that saloons and distilleries will be confined to towns of at least 5,000 inhabitants, and that W. R. Odell, a member of this Conference and a State Senator, be requested to present this petition to the Legislature.

We would urge pastors and Sunday School teachers to continue to give definite temperance instruction to all the scholars, and that the work of preaching, lecturing and circulating temperance literature be zealously continued.

We would urge teachers and superintendents of public schools to consider the successful working of temperance societies organized in the public schools of Belgium in the hope that like success may obtain in our own public schools.

We appreciate the efforts of those State and county officials who have enforced our prohibitory laws, and with no desire to dictate to any man as to politics, we urge our people to labor for the election to office of pure men who have positive temperance convictions.

We recommend the continuance of the committee consisting of S. B. Turrentine, W. R. Ware, Frank Siler, J. D. McCall and Dr. H. D. Stewart to co-operate with like committees of other religious and temperance organizations.

We also recommend that the Memorial to Congress asking for Prohibition Statehood for Indian Territory be presented to that body as an expression of our wishes.

W. H. PERRY, Secretary.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

We submit the following:

We regard criticism, either pro or con, as a small value, therefore we make none arising out of reports made to this Conference.

1. We regard the reading and study of the Bible as of first importance. If our members are to be intelligent scriptural Christians they must be familiar with the teachings of the Bible.

We recommend that all pews in the churches as well as the homes of our people be supplied with Bibles. That the mid-week prayer-meeting be made a service of song, prayer and Bible study. That the pastor and people read the lesson responsively and make comment when it can be helpful.

2. We cannot over-estimate the worth of congregational singing. We recommend that church pews be furnished with our own hymn books, and that the people be exhorted to sing. Let all the people sing. We believe that it would be better to use our own Methodist hymn books in all the services of the church, including the Sunday Schools, and let the scholars of the Sunday School be trained in the songs of the church service.

3. We believe that the words of Christ "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not" carry with them, not only the right of children to be baptized, but also their right to be recognized as members of the church, as soon as they have an intelligent conception of what is involved in a public profession of faith in Christ.

We recommend that discreet diligence be exercised to induce the children to join the church—all the children—and they be carefully instructed in Christian doctrines and church rules.

4. We believe that great importance attaches to the solemn observance of the sacraments.

We recommend that our preachers preach often on the subject of infant baptism—instructing the people on the nature, importance and spiritual benefits of this sacrament.

Also that the Lord's supper be administered as the Discipline directs. That the preachers preach on the nature, duty and benefits of this sacrament. And that it always be administered with due solemnity.

5. We believe that faithful prayer offered in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ prevails with God.

We recommend that our preachers preach often on the nature and efficacy of prayer. That we labor to influence heads of families to erect family altars and restore and preserve religious home-life. That we practice and strongly insist on every member of our church to establish the habit of private prayer.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals wish to call attention to the fact that the time given during recent years to the reading of fiction is far greater than that branch of literature deserves. Moderate use of good fiction is harmless, and even beneficial, but when novels are made the chief source of intellectual entertainment they dissipate and enervate the mind. We believe that the preacher, as the leader of our people can render them valuable service by assisting them in the selection of suitable reading matter. To the making of even good books there is no end. Our own publishing house is able to supply every need in this direction, and every intelligent Methodist ought to keep in touch with the best of books either through our publishing house or through some other means. But in this age of intellectual culture it is well for us to remember that even simply as literature the Bible is the masterpiece of the ages. While the Holy Scriptures are to be read primarily for spiritual enlightenment, nothing comparable to them in literary value has ever been produced, and no person can lay claim to intellectual culture, so long as he is ignorant of the contents of the Book of books.

The Southern Methodist Publishing House sends us a report, which shows that the past fiscal year has been a successful one. But while the house is a financial success, the territory covered is too broad to allow the agents at Nashville to push the sale of the books in all parts to the greatest advantage. Many more readers would be found for our books, if they were brought more directly to the notice of our people. The committee is glad, therefore, to report further that brother Chas. S. Stone, who is an official member of Tryon Street Methodist Church, appeared before us and asked the appointment as Sales Agent of this Conference and stated that if he could secure a like appointment from the North Carolina Conference and also from the South Carolina Conference, he would, through his company, the Stone & Barringer Company, establish at Charlotte a depository for the publications of our publishing house, furnishing the books and publications at the same prices at which they are furnished by the publishing houses, and giving to ministers the same discounts. Brother Stone further states that in case he receives these appointments he will put himself in touch with the various ministers and churches and endeavor to increase very greatly the sale of our books and periodicals. The committee is of the opinion that it will be greatly to the benefit of our church and would greatly promote sales to have such a depository at Charlotte; that orders could be filled much more promptly than from the publishing house at Nashville and in cases where the freight and express charges are to be paid by the purchasers, these charges will be greatly less than from Nashville or from any other point where they are now sold. The committee therefore recommends that Brother Stone be appointed Sales Agent of the Conference.

The current publications of the house are of great value to the church. The Methodist Quarterly Review has met with a reception among the publications of its kind of which the editor may well be proud. The Nashville Advocate gives the news of the whole connection with accuracy, and the progressive conservatism of Dr. Winton, as it manifests itself through the editorial page, is exceedingly stimulating. We rejoice to see that The Epworth Era is now self-supporting and we congratulate Dr. DuBose upon the rapid strides he is making toward the accomplishment of his desire to make The Era the best religious paper for young Methodists. We are also happy in the fact that the class of Sunday School literature issued by our house is unexcelled in Christendom.

The improvement in the North Carolina Christian Advocate during the past year has been quite marked. The editor has been to some extent relieved from financial anxiety, and his liberty has told upon the editorial columns. The paper is now practically out of debt and has just paid a four per cent dividend upon the capital stock. We feel that special thanks are due to the Rev. H. M. Blair for his faithful work in increasing the circulation, which has had a net gain of 300 during the year, and also for his fair-mindedness and noble spirit in the editorial department of the paper. The present success is very gratifying, but we realize that our paper must be made better and that it must be put into the hands of larger numbers of our people. The maintenance of The Advocate's present circulation and further betterment will depend upon the financial support of the preachers and laymen of the Conference. We therefore recommend that, in order to improve the financial condition and to bring the paper into the homes of more of our people, a special effort be made to increase the circulation of the Advocate at least 1,500 between now and the first of May. We beg leave to suggest that this number be taken by the various districts according to their numerical strength as follows: Asheville 125, Charlotte 200, Franklin 100, Greensboro 200, Morganton 150, Mt. Airy 150, Salisbury 175, Shelby 200, Statesville 200, Waynesville 100, Winston 200. We also ask that the Advocate receive special attention at the First Quarterly Conference of each charge. The Publication Committee has nominated Rev. H. M. Blair for Editor, and your committee heartily concurs in their opinion and recommends that he be appointed to this position.

The committee has had before it the request from the North Carolina Conference that this Conference appoint a commission to confer with a commission appointed by the North Carolina Conference at its last session, in regard to the consolidation of the North Carolina Christian Advocate and the Raleigh Christian Advocate. We note with pleasure this additional manifestation of the good-will, which has always existed between the two Conferences, and rejoice in the common interests which hold us together. We regret, however, that owing to existing arrangements and conditions in regard to the publication of the North Carolina Christian Advocate consolidation is impracticable. For this reason it would be useless to appoint a commission, and we recommend that the Secretary of the Conference be instructed to inform Rev. N. M. Watson, the chairman of the commission from the North Carolina Conference, of our action.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

The Records of Morganton, Mount Airy, Salisbury, Shelby and Winston districts are neatly and accurately kept.

The Charlotte District Record on the whole is neatly kept but the roll is not complete and the Secretary did not sign his name at the proper place. The Statesville Record is well kept, though there are slight inaccuracies in wording.

The Asheville Record is neatly kept, but we would suggest that the committee reports should have appeared in the body of the minutes, and not as a supplement.

Waynesville Record is well kept, though there are too many abbreviations.

The Records of Greensboro and Franklin Districts were not before the committee.

DIVORCE.

Your Committee on Divorce submits the following:

WHEREAS, The sanctity and inviolability of the marriage relation is plainly established by the Word of God; and

WHEREAS, This sanctity is seriously threatened, and social and domestic virtue greatly discounted, by the increased number of statutory grounds for divorce; and

WHEREAS, Easy divorce laws are productive of inconsiderate and unwise marriages, thereby causing much domestic unhappiness; and

WHEREAS, In consequence of this the divorce evil has grown to an alarming extent in North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is on record as opposed to all divorce except that for the one post-nuptial cause, adultery; therefore be it

Resolved first, That we deeply deplore the lowering of the civic conscience and the disturbing the foundations of our social life through the enactment and execution of anti-scriptural divorce laws.

Second. That our preachers be urged to observe strictly the law of the Discipline which prohibits them from "solemnizing the rite of matrimony between divorced persons except in case of innocent parties who have been divorced for the one scriptural cause."

Third. That we respectfully and earnestly petition the General Assembly of North Carolina at its approaching session to repeal all divorce laws enacted since 1883.

Fourth. That S. B. Turrentine, H. F. Chreitzberg and James Atkins be appointed a committee to confer and co-operate with similar committees from other ecclesiastical bodies for the purpose of securing the object of the petition expressed in the third resolution.

CONFERENCE TRUSTEES.

We, the Trustees of the Conference, herewith submit a report covering the transactions of the past year:

In carrying out the action of the last Conference we instructed the Treasurer to dispose of any land he could sell at a fair price, collect all outstanding notes as they became due and to pay off the claimants of the fund as rapidly as possible. We paid to J. A. Odell, Treasurer, $900. By agreement with the Trustees of Weddington Academy we paid them $10,000 in cash and in land. We have paid Brevard School $1,000; Weaverville College, $2,200; Rutherford College, $1,600; Davenport College, $2,000 and for repairs and expenses $177.50. We hold the Weddington Home place (457 acres) for the Conference Claimant Fund. In a few days we will pay to Davenport College $200, and to Rutherford College $600, which will make $2,200 each, to Davenport, Weaverville and Rutherford Colleges. There will later be a small balance to be divided equally between them.

There is now in hand, cash, $1,563; a check from J. D. Hemby for $477, for rents; a check from H. M. Blair for $220, for dividends from Advocate stock; a check from T. B. Crawford for $1,070 in payment of note. Fifty-five (55) shares of stock in the Advocate Publishing Company, and 104 acres of land, now in possession of Bob. Weddington, but which comes to the Conference at his death.

We recommend that $300 be paid to the Treasurer of the Conference Claimant Fund. In the judgment of the Trustees there is no further need for the Treasurer to give a bond.

L. W. CRAWFORD, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON ORPHANAGE.

Your committee to whom was referred the communication from the Executive Committee of the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh containing a resolution passed at the last session of the North Carolina Conference inviting the co-operation or union of our Conference with theirs in the Orphanage work recommend the appointment of the Presiding Elders of the Greensboro District, the pastors of West Market Street and Centenary churches of Greensboro together with J. A. Odell and C. H. Ireland as a commission of five to confer with the above-named committee who were appointed by the North Carolina Conference, in regard to the matter and report the result of the meeting to the next session of this Conference for ratification or rejection.

Your committee takes the liberty of commending the work of Mr. W. B. Streeter, Supt. of the N. C. Childrens Home Society, and ask the Conference to endorse favorably by formal action his work and commend the same to our people.

We further recommend the holding in all our churches as far as practicable an appropriate service on or near to Thanksgiving Day and take a collection for orphans, to be distributed according to wishes of pastors and congregations between the Oxford Orphanage and the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh.

MEMOIRS.

REV. JOHN WILLIAMSON BIRD.

BY J. J. EDWARDS.

John Williamson Bird was born in McDowell County, N. C., September 27, 1824, and died 29th February, 1904.

We give this sketch of his life in substance as he gave it himself in an article published sometime ago in our Conference organ. His grandfather Bird was a local preacher of the old original type. His mother was a Miss Curtis of the same type. His father moved from McDowell to Macon County when Brother Bird was a boy ten years old, and there he grew to manhood.

His early opportunities were limited. The nearest school was ten miles away and churches were few and far between. But the Methodist Circuit rider found the way to his father's home and there established a preaching place. The word of truth aroused him and convicted him of sin and at a camp-meeting near Franklin in 1845 he was happily converted and joined the church.

He was appointed class leader and licensed to exhort—then married and settled down to farm. He continued actively in Christian work, however, and in 1850 was licensed to preach and for two years served well as a local preacher and then for two years more he served Circuits as a supply, and in 1855 was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference at Jonesboro, Tenn., and from that time till 1882 travelled steadily as an itinerant preacher with the exception of three or four years.

In 1882 on account of afflictions he was granted a supernumerary relation. The most of his itinerant life was spent in the mountains of Western North Carolina though during the war he travelled for four years in Tennessee and Southwest Virginia. He travelled nearly all the territory now covered by the Asheville, Franklin and Waynesville Districts. When Circuits were large and churches far apart, Tuckasegee, his first Circuit, covered all of Jackson, Swain and Graham counties with sixteen to twenty appointments and his salary that year was only $62, but he did not complain, but rather said it was good for him, and his service had been good for the people, and then he thanked the Lord that these latter days were better days and he was glad to see them, though he himself was old and retired from service.

We feel sure that his spirit is now crowned with joy in the presence of Jesus, and while we rejoice in the crowning of our brother, our hearts go out in sympathy to the sorrowing wife and children who are left behind.

REV. JAMES DELAFAYETTE CARPENTER.

BY W. H. WILLIS.

The subject of this sketch was born not far from the present town of Caroleen in Rutherford County, N. C., February 14, 1836. He died at his home in Marion, N. C., July 1, 1904. He came of good Christian stock, his parents being Jonathan Arthur and Masey Travis Lee Carpenter, the latter being a grand niece of Light Horse Harry Lee of revolutionary fame.

Being reared in the healthy religious atmosphere of Methodist altars, it is not strange that at the age of twelve he should yield himself to the service of Christ. His happy conversion occurred at Rock Spring camp-meeting under the preaching of Rev. Paul F. Kestler of precious memory.

"Before his heart should learn
In waywardness to stray:
Before his feet should turn
The dark and downward way," he began building a strong, robust Christian character upon the Rock of Ages. No scar of youthful dissipation marred the symmetry of a vigorous physical manhood. Until within a few weeks of his death, in his 68th year, "his eye was not dim nor his natural force abated." Full six feet tall, with form erect and well proportioned, with ruddy face and elastic step, he faced the arduous duties of a mountain pastorate with hardly the suggestion of weariness.

For a preacher of his generation, his educational equipment was good. In addition to his common school training, he studied at both Rutherford and Wofford Colleges. He read much and took a vital interest in the political and ecclesiastical movements of his time. On his last bed, his eye would brighten with interest on being advised of important church or state news.

There is no Levitical tribe among us from whose loins must spring all occupants of the priestly office. Yet can not there be traced something from father to son a hereditary predisposition to the ministerial calling? Two uncles of James D. Carpenter on the mother's side were eminent preachers. Hence this young man's cheerful answer to the divine call might have been predicted. After exercising himself for a year as an exhorter at Tanner's Grove, his home church, he, in his 23rd year, was given license to preach at Center camp ground by J. W. Kelly, presiding elder. One year later the same quarterly conference recommended him for admission on trial into the South Carolina Annual Conference. He was received at its session of the same year (1860) held at Columbia, and was sent to Darlington circuit. His examinations were stood successfully for the four successive years. Bishop George F. Pierce ordained him deacon in 1862, and two years later he was ordained elder.

He served the following pastorates: Darlington, Deep River, Mattamuskeet, Wadesboro, Cape Fear, Old Fort, Charlotte, Broad River, Dallas, Double Shoals, Green River, Marion, Hickory and Happy Home Bakersville, Cherokee, Stanley, North Catawba, Spartanburg, LaGrange.

This gives the zigzag ecclesiastical pathway reaching from seashore to mountains, as travelled by this faithful, unselfish, uncomplaining itinerant, or, changing the figure, a sort of stream along which the current of his life flowed. Of the rich spiritual harvests that have grown by its waters, of the fruitful trees that, growing by its shore, have drunk of its moisture, only the recording angel hath full knowledge!

As a preacher he had many elements of strength. Simple, scriptural, thoughtful, evangelical—these were characteristics of his sermons. From first to last, the favor of God rested upon his ministry. His spiritual children, scattered through the Carolinas, are a great host. He never seemed to be conscious of his own worth. Although many times sent to serve poor and difficult fields, what man ever heard him complain?

After six years of service the young man called to his side the woman who has shared his joys and sorrows through the passing years. In that selection he was unusually fortunate. Miss Jennie Moore, daughter of Babel Moore, of Burke County, brought to his life much of strength and peculiar sympathies for the work of an itinerant. To this happy union were born six children, four sons and two daughters. These, with the exception of an infant sister, with the widow, survive him. Five cultivated Christian children, honorably employed in as many States, is further testimony that his life was not lived in vain.

He died in the harness—in the midst of what promised to be one of the most successful years of his ministry. The suffering incident to his fatal illness, alleviated by faithful physicians and the tender ministries of his united family, he bore with Christian fortitude. The writer counts among his blessings the privilege of being frequently by that Christian bedside. Death to him was devoid of terror. Heaven to his faith was a glowing, glorious reality. He claimed entrance not upon his own merit, but solely on the ground of Christ's compassionate mercy. Brethren of the Conference, he sends you this message: "Tell them that I have died in the faith that I have tried to preach to others."

Almost as peaceful as a babe sinks to slumber on its mother's bosom, he fell on sleep. The broken box of alabaster, whose perfume had been poured out in a thousand homes was tenderly laid beneath the daisies of his own loved Carolina hills in the Marion cemetery to await the resurrection. His earthly tent house has given place to the house which is from heaven.

MRS. JOHN R. BROOKS.

BY MRS. L. W. CRAWFORD.

Over the opening session of the recent annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held at Monroe, a dark shadow rested. For the first time since its organization, the chair of the Recording Secretary was vacant. To subdued and sorrowing hearts the sad intelligence came that our beloved sister, Mrs. J. R. Brooks, was detained by an illness that must inevitably prove fatal. Little did we dream, however, as we listened to her last sweet messages of love and inspiration, and to the plaintive song she loved so well, that, though "ready to gang at any moment," so soon her eyes would see

"The gowden gate of heaven in her ain countrie."

A long brave fight she made against insidious disease, submitting patiently and hopefully, five times to the surgeon's knife without permanent relief. With the realization of the hopelessness of her case came also a perfect acquiescence in her Father's will. To the scenes of her childhood she asked to be carried, and there, at length, surrounded by kindred and dear ones, with every ministry that love and skill could devise, in perfect peace, the end came—the weary wheels of life stood still. She was eager to go, and a gladsome day to her was July 29—her coronation day.

God gave her nearly sixty beautiful years, and through this long pilgrimage of sunshine and shadow His guiding hand was upon her for good. From earliest infancy He kept her in training for a great work, and for Christian leadership among the women of North Carolina Methodism. Born in 1844 of noble parentage, the late Daniel S. and Susan Erwin Hill, reared in a home of Christian culture and refinement, educated in a college that has made classic her native town of Louisburg, for some years a successful teacher, she was well equipped indeed for the ever widening sphere of influence and usefulness that opened to her as the wife of a prominent Methodist itinerant minister. In 1879, she was married to Rev. John R. Brooks, D.D., and to-day the husband and step-children to whom she ever gave such unselfish, untiring care and devotion, rise up in their manhood and call her "blessed." Successively were Newbern, Fayetteville, Wilson, Goldsboro, Shelby, Greensboro, High Point, Reidsville, Monroe, Charlotte and Salisbury quickened in their church life by the faithful ministries that only an intelligent, cultured, consecrated preacher's wife can give. Her charming personality, her many graces, her winning ways made her a welcome guest in every home and endeared her to every heart. A happy faculty she had of transforming any parsonage or abiding place into an attractive spot where she delighted to enjoy her friends and to dispense a wholesouled hospitality. It may be truly said, "She broke the box of spikenard daily and poured the precious perfume of tenderness, sympathy and love on all who came about her."

Mrs. Brooks was a gifted woman, and the fine talents committed to her keeping were turned to the best account in her Master's interest. With grace and facility she both wrote and spoke, and always with an unction that inspired to nobler service for the King. In every department of woman's work in her church, as well as in many undenominational benevolences, she was a leading spirit. Especially in the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was her influence and her power felt. Every auxiliary with which she was connected honored her with its presidency, and never did she fail to infuse into it new life and zeal. Most faithfully and efficiently did she perform the arduous duties of Recording Secretary of her Conference Society for fourteen years. During her residence in Charlotte she did some of her best work as secretary of the Florence Crittenden Home Association. Her last public service was given June 21, to the Missionary Society at Reidsville. Truly "her works do praise her in the gates."

To us who so keenly feel the loss of a comrade now promoted to higher service above, she has left a rich legacy in the example of a singularly beautiful character, enriched with every Christian grace and virtue. Though dead, she yet speaketh. In life and death she was a faithful witness to her Lord, testifying constantly to a sense of His abiding presence and love, and His power to give peace and joy in the deepest afflictions. In spiritual life she steadily advanced from grace to grace, from strength to strength.

"And so the years flowed on and only cast
Light and more light upon the shining way.
That more and more, shone to the perfect day;
Always intenser, clearer than the past;
Because they only bore her, on glad wing
Nearer the Light of Lights, the Presence of her King."

May her spirit ever abide with those who linger yet a while!
